

Birth & Christening

Carden, Redman and relatives

WARNING

The following table has been sorted by the name of the father, then the mother and finally the date. Where there are variations in the spelling of the parents' names or where names are missing, I have attempted to group "probable" families by using the same colour shading. However, I am not infallible, and anyone using this data should draw their own conclusions!

⁴ Strange duplicated entries for Elizabeth and Richard

⁵ These are identical (duplicated?) records on nearby pages with only day/month being different; both pages signed at the bottom by Vicar and same Churchwardens

⁶ Did the first Mary die so that the name was recycled? No burial was found in the Transcript (both original and microfilm) or the Register between 1709-1714

ⁱ Robert bap 1767 (s/o Robert & Mary) is all on his own! The speculative possibilities are: (1) he is an only child, (2) his father's name is actually Richard, so Robert would have siblings from 1761-1771, (3) father Robert was previously married to Susanna who died after her last child Anne (bap 1756) so child Robert would have older step siblings from 1746-1756, (4) mother Mary died after Robert's birth and father Robert married, for the 2nd time, Abigail, so that child Robert would have younger step siblings from 1779-1795, (5) etc. At present, options (3) and (4) are unlikely as I can find no death of either a Susanna Carden or a Mary Carden at an appropriate date.
